

Lab Assignment 2- Linux Commands

1. Install Google Chrome in Kali Linux via the deb package file.
2. Create a user with a new home directory.
3. Change the password of the user created in Question 3
4. Assign sudo privilege to the user created in question 3.
5. Create a new user group and Add the user created in Question 3 to this newly created group.
6. Display file size in Human readable format of Directory /etc/.
7. Update a text file access and Modification time to 17 December.
8. Delete a folder that stores multiple files and folders in it using single command only.
9. Show all Users in Linux with a single command only.

Submission Note: Students are required to solve the above-written problems using various commands studied so far, prepare a word/pdf document including screenshots of the output of the commands (question-wise) and submit it. if multiple commands are run to solve a single question, include a screenshot for each command.